Spreading the word of the everlasting Kingdom

Lesson Four: This earth is not Home

We are all homeless; this earth is not home.

“Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord” (2 Corinthians 5:6).

The wisdom of this world is foolishness to God (1 Corinthians 3:19).

“But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned” (1 Corinthians 2:14).

“For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God” (1 Corinthians 1:18).

“For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this world? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

“For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe” (1 Corinthians 1:19-21).

“There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit” (Romans 8:1).

At the end of time, only God’s chosen and faithful elect will be finally going home.

Every child needs a family, and like any good home here on earth, every child must be obedient to their parents. Similarly, God expects the same in his house and will only allow those who are righteous to come home.

Life is to one day live in everlasting habitations with God and his only begotten Son, Jesus: the Christ and the everlasting King.

“Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence” (Psalm 140:13).
